

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE Journeyman Electrician

REPORTS TO Client Service Manager or Foreman

JOB OVERVIEW

The journeyman electrician is responsible for troubleshooting, building, installing, and maintaining various industrial electrical work in a variety of conditions. This will include some automation work, operating equipment, or other duties as assigned. All employees must act with urgency, accountability, and flexibility to ensure Wescom's core values are always followed.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Arrive at work and on the job with a positive outlook and ambition to Energize America.
- Follow required processes required to document daily work completed (i.e. daily field tickets, POs, JSA, Pre-trip inspections, etc.).
- Take pride in maintaining personal use of company property.
- Help enhance the knowledge of apprentices and peers; take time to train and perform quality control of work as necessary.
- Perform quality Electrical and Control work, including troubleshooting and maintenance, per NEC, using client request and Wescom standards as guidance.
- Demonstrate ownership of project success.
- Plan workload, communicate, and direct such work to other electricians and apprentices on locations.
- Comply with all state, federal, and tribal regulations related to licensing requirements for electrical.
- Maintain open and clear communication with clients, fellow employees, and management.
- Be an active safety role model and follow all safety requirements.

- Live Wescom core values of Building Customers for Life, Serving with Integrity, Empowering People and Creating Opportunities.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school diploma.
- Wyoming Journeyman Electrical License.
- Ability to lift 50+ lbs. and work in a variety of construction settings.
- Ability to reach, stretch, and pull cables while bending, reaching, and twisting.
- Ability to work in extreme weather conditions without complaining.
- Willingness and desire to teach others.
- Experience in industrial settings of at least 2 years with preference of electrical, instrumentation, automation, or controls.

SALARY

$35.00 / hour + DOE

HOURS

Expect 40 hours a week with a start time of 7:00 AM to – 4:00 PM M-F with occasional overtime as needed.

CAREER PATH

The Journeyman Electricians report to the Client Services Managers or Foreman of their area. There are several career paths available to the right individual including moving up to foreman, Client Services Manager, over to the Industrial Controls team, safety, or other operations. Wescom believes in people and is always willing to train the right person.

