

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE Apprentice Electrician

REPORTS TO Client Service Manager

JOB OVERVIEW

The Electrical Apprentice is responsible for completing work as directed by onsite foreman, with the intention of becoming a Journeyman Electrician. This includes but is not limited to, learning the trade, keeping the work safe, troubleshooting, building, installing, and maintaining various industrial electrical components. All employees must act with urgency, accountability, and flexibility to ensure Wescom's core values are always followed.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Be an active safety role model and follow all safety requirements.
- Complete work with a positive attitude.
- Work safely and follow all safety guidelines per OSHA regulations and Wescom's standards
- Measure, cut, and bend conduit using a tape measure and appropriate power/hand tools
- Operate power tools such as drills, saws, pullers, tuggers, etc.
- Install conductors in race way and cable tray using manual and power equipment
- Assist in lifting, positioning, and fastening objects, such as wiring, conduit, and motors
- Perform minor repairs, such as replacing fuses and devices
- Load, transport, unload, and furnish Journeyman and Foreman Electricians with materials, equipment, tools, and supplies
- Use ladders, scaffolding, scissor, and boom lifts
- Perform housekeeping duties, as required
- Other duties as assigned by field leaders
- Learn electrical codes and safety standards and advance electrical
- Take accountability for apprenticeship education, and maintaining active apprenticeship card.
- Take pride in maintaining personal use of company property.

- Live Wescom core values of Building Customers for Life, Serving with Integrity, Empowering People and Creating Opportunities.

QUALIFICATIONS

- High school diploma.
- Current Electrical Apprenticeship card in the state they are working.
- Ability to lift 50+ lbs and work in a variety of construction settings.
- Ability to reach, stretch, and pull cables while bending, reaching, and twisting.
- Ability to work in extreme weather conditions without complaining.
- Willingness and desire to learn the electrical trade.

SALARY

18.00 / hour +

HOURS

Expect 40 hours a week with a start time of 7:00 AM to – 4:00 PM M-F with occasional overtime as needed.

CAREER PATH

The Electrical Apprentice report to the Client Services Managers. There are several career paths available to the right individual including moving up to Journeyman Electrician or Automation/Instrumentation Technician. Wescom believes in people and is always willing to train the right person.

